Welcome to St Georges Church

We hope you are blessed as we praise and give thanks to God. Words to the songs, hymns and bible readings are projected onto the screen during the service, however, if you would like a song book or bible please speak to our welcomers at the door.

If you would like confidential prayer after the service, please speak to the prayer team.

For your prayers.

- A new minister to be appointed for St George's.
- Adayfield Free Church awaiting their new building completion.
- Tim Chang in Christchurch, New Zealand

Sign up for 'Preach with a View' Tea & Questions – There is a form located at the back of the Church for members to sign up to join the prospective candidate for tea after they have led our service on 9th June at 3pm. If you have any specific dietary needs, please complete that section too. You don't need to complete this form to attend the service - just the tea more tea vicar?

Questions for our Prospective Minister – All members are invited to submit questions in advance of the forthcoming 'Tea & Questions' slot following the 'preach with a view' on 9th June at 3pm. This is just to enable us to collate and present questions to save time and minimise repetition - My email address is admin@st-georges-urc-hemel.org.uk

If you would like a copy of the ORIGINAL questions that were asked at the initial interview then please send an email to Jonathan at secretary@st-georges-urc-hemel.org.uk

Church BBQ – Sunday 7th July. Following this service there will be an all-inclusive Church BBQ, everyone is invited, if you would like to come there is a sign-up sheet located at the back of the Church, right next to the "Preach with a View" sign-up sheet, so why not do both whilst you are there. This form also has a section for you to complete if you have any specific dietary needs.
