Please Consider helping out with our Youth groups when they restart in June. (Hopefully)

For your thoughts & prayers.

- For those that can, they consider helping out with our youth programmes.
- That we may continue to serve the local community, without the need for anything in return.
- Giving thanks for those who work as volunteers in local charities and organisations.
- For those who have been nominated, as they prayerfully consider if they should stand for membership of the leadership team.
- For the Foodbank during a time of extra demand for help.
- For the work of discovery in local schools.

Wednesday Welcome. Congratulations to the Wednesday Welcome team, who have now sent out a whole year of weekly newsletters to members, during Lock down. Full of photos, encouragement, poems and prayers these keep us all in touch. (Special thanks to Editor in Chief, Judy Watson.)

Editor's Note. Great job Judy, I know how difficult it can be to keep a newsletter both interesting and informative. Looks like you've cracked it!

Care for the family is offering a range of free (mostly) online events for the family. They also have a range of podcasts that you can subscribe to via your favourite app. The sorts of thing they are offering are programmes, such as

- “The Mum Show” – Twelve 30 minute sessions that offer support and help through the topsy-turvy seasons of motherhood.
- “Raising Teens – Off script” A 3 part series for any parent worried about their teenager(s) or young person.

All of these events can be found at their website. You will need to register before you can subscribe. www.cff.org.uk go to their online events page which looks like this.....

Getting back to Church Services. Currently we are due to come back to Church on Sunday the 25th of April. However, services will continue to be delivered via Zoom as well. So, if you don't feel safe venturing out then no problem. Stay home and join us via Zoom.

Weekly Youth Meeting. We would like to make plans to re-open Pilots (or whatever it may be called) on Thursday the 24th of June. However, we will need help to make this happen. If you are able to help or would like to help, then please get in touch with me via email admin@st-georges-urc-hemel.org.uk. You don't need to come for the whole evening, you might just have a story to tell or an activity you would like to run, whatever you can give will be gratefully received.
