OWL Neighbourhood Watch. In recent weeks, there has been an increase in the use of counterfeit bank notes. A typical example of this might be an individual or individuals agreeing to purchase high-value electrical items, such as phones or games consoles.

The individual/s would then collect the items from the sellers, handing over an envelope filled with counterfeit currency before fleeing the scene with the goods.

Some tips to protect yourself. Inspect the bank notes. If your transaction is in-person for cash, don't feel pressured into handing over items until you are satisfied that the bank notes are not counterfeit.

Of course, not all counterfeits are easy to spot. For more information on counterfeit bank notes and how to identify one, please visit the Bank of England website here:

Farewell to Andrew Prasad (Steady!) A farewell event to Andrew Prasad (URC Moderator) will take place via Zoom on Saturday 22 May 2021 between 11.00am – 12.30pm.

Weekly Youth Meeting. We would like to make plans to re-open Pilots (or whatever it may be called) on Thursday the 24th of June. However, we will need help to make this happen. If you are able to help or would like to help, then please get in touch with me via email admin@st-georges-urc-hemel.org.uk.
